2. Please identify two areas in which we excelled:

Prompt attention! We called in the middle of a bind and the guy showed up in a day, which was great!

3. Please identify two areas in which we could improve:

The only area of improvement would be around the knowledge of the friction conveyor. However, being that this is not something that is seen every day, the team caught on quickly after a brief training and did a great job!

4. Please share any other comment you might have about this project or JMP in general.
